Instructor Bio: My name is Madison Andre. I'm a graduate of Shawnee State University and a local maker of things. I own Andre's Bakery which supplies local coffee shops with bagels and other goods and I co-own Amarissa Woods Tea & Spice Shop with my mother. I am a crafter at heart and love to create things out of nothing. From yarn to watercolor to ceramics, if you can make something beautiful out of it I'm interested. I love sharing ideas and instilling confidence in others to try new things and bring their ideas to life.
