OHIO UNIVERSITY
Center for International Studies

Funding Opportunities for CIS Students

There are many options for funding a global opportunity, including your OHIO scholarships and financial aid. Below are a few of particular interest to CIS students:

Boundless: Study Away Scholarship for CIS Students

Undergraduate major, minor, certificate and GLC students and graduate students pursuing a variety of study away experiences, including domestic and international study away programs, student exchanges, internships, volunteer opportunities and research.
Minimum duration of travel is 2 weeks.

Office of Global Opportunities Merit Scholarship

Undergraduates studying abroad for credit.

Office of Global Opportunities Need-Based Travel Grant

US citizen or permanent resident undergraduates studying abroad for credit.

Office of Global Opportunities Study Abroad Diversity Travel Award

US citizen or permanent resident undergraduates and graduates from diverse backgrounds studying abroad for credit.

Office of Global Opportunities Graduate & HCOM Student Travel Award

Graduates and HCOM students studying abroad for credit.

George C. Burke Scholarship for Summer Study Abroad for OIC

Undergraduates who are Ohio residents participating on a summer program at least 4 weeks in duration.

Donald N. Nelson Scholarship for OIC

Undergraduates who are Ohio residents studying abroad for a semester.
Preference given to applicants studying in non-English-speaking counties and taking courses in native language of host country.

Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship Program

Undergraduate Pell Grant recipients studying abroad for at least 28 days in one country.
Nationally competitive.

Boren Undergraduate Scholarships

U.S. undergraduates for study in areas of the world critical to U.S. interests and under represented in study abroad. Experiences of 6 months or longer are preferred.
Nationally competitive.

Boren Graduate Fellowships

U.S. graduate students studying less commonly taught languages in world regions critical to US interests and underrepresented in study abroad.
Experiences of 6 months or longer are preferred. Nationally competitive.

This is just a sample of the funding opportunities available to you.
Please visit http://www.ohio.edu/global/goglobal/students/funding.cfm to explore the many options available to you!

Global Opportunities GO! Experience the World