The Diversity Leadership Ambassador Program provides a unique opportunity for students to actively use their personal narratives to create influential change on the Ohio University campus and beyond. Ambassadors work toward evolving perspectives and breaking down stereotypes through the use of diversity related topics to increase cultural awareness across society and in everyday settings. Ambassadors are responsible for facilitating diverse conversations through presentations and open discussions in classrooms, at staff meetings, and events throughout the academic year. Our presentations are free and available to the Athens and University communities. Ambassadors are some of Ohio University’s most involved students and become part of a close-knit, diverse, and vibrant group.

Presentation topics include, but are not limited to: immigration, understanding differing cultures and culture shocks, LGBT+ experiences, gender identity, religion, allyship, physical, mental and emotional abuse, education, challenges facing minority groups, family dynamics, socioeconomic status, mental health, first generation college student experiences, and the challenges that come with growing up in a single parent household.

Why be a Diversity Leadership Ambassador?
