Whereas the Ohio University Faculty Handbook states, “The criteria used to make decisions on promotion and tenure must originate in the department or school in consultation with the dean” (Section II.C.7.d).

Whereas the Ohio University Faculty Handbook states, “Transparency, clarity, consistency, timeliness, and fairness should be overriding goals for all colleges, schools, and departments as they establish guidelines and procedures governing tenure and promotion” (Section II.E.10).

Whereas the Ohio University Faculty Handbook states, “The departmental/school criteria for promotion and tenure should be reviewed periodically (at least every five years)” (Section II.E.10.c).

Whereas the 2022-23 Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, Accessibility, and Belonging (DEIAB) Faculty Affairs Council produced a report titled Recommendations for Equitable Promotion & Tenure.

Whereas the Recommendations for Equitable Promotion & Tenure report recommends criteria and process considerations for improving equity in promotion and tenure.

Whereas the Faculty Senate Promotion & Tenure Committee endorses fairness as an overriding goal for all college, school, and department guidelines and procedures governing tenure and promotion.

BE IT RESOLVED that Faculty Senate recommends schools/departments review and revise (as appropriate) their promotion and/or tenure guidelines for fairness and equity.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Faculty Senate recommends schools/departments consider the criteria and process considerations outlined in the Recommendations for Equitable Promotion & Tenure when reviewing and revising their promotion and/or tenure guidelines for fairness and equity.