This form is for students who used a certain parent's information on the FAFSA in error. According to the U.S. Department of Education you must provide information on the FAFSA for the parent:

- with whom you, the student lived with more during the past 12 months or
- from whom you, the student received more financial support during the past 12 months.

Name of Supporting Parent _____

If the parent with whom you lived for the majority of the last 12 months or from whom you received the majority of your financial support in the last 12 months is NOT the parent who provided information on your 2021-2022 FAFSA, you should complete the FAFSA Parental Information Form. This form can be printed from our website at www.ohio.edu/financialaid by selecting "forms".

You must submit this form along with the FAFSA Parental Information Form so that we may update your FAFSA with the correct parental information. You and your parent's signature must be on both forms in order for our office to proceed.

Remember, if the parent you are listing on the FAFSA is remarried as of today, you MUST provide information for both your supporting parent and his or her spouse. This is a federal requirement. By signing this form, you are confirming that you are providing the most accurate reflection of your family and their financial situation.
