Student, spouses, or parents who have requested an extension beyond the automatic 6 month extension for the 2023 federal tax return must provide the following information to be considered for federal financial aid. No expired extension forms will be accepted for this process. Once the tax return extension has expired, the tax filer will be required to provide the 2023 IRS tax return transcript. Awards may be adjusted based on the final tax return information. Failure to provide the 2023 IRS tax return transcript after the extension has expired will result in a reversal of federal financial aid.

1. The following individual, whose information is required on the FAFSA has requested the tax extension for the 2023 federal tax filing year?

_____ Student

_____ Both Parents

_____ Student's spouse

_____ Parent 1 Name: _____

_____ Parent 2 Name: _____

2. What federal income tax return would the person requesting the extension file for 2023?

_____ IRS 1040

_____ Foreign Tax Return

_____ U.S. Territory

3. What would be the federal tax filing status of the individual who has filed the extension for 2024?

_____ Single

_____ Married-filed joint return

_____ Head of Household

_____ Married-filed separate return

_____ Widow(er)

4. Would the individual who filed an extension be required to file a schedule 1? Yes No

5. Indicate below the tax documents that apply to the individual filing the tax extension. Submit these documents with this form.
