On your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), you indicated that you would be a graduate student during the 2019-2020 academic year. Because you are listed as an undergraduate student during, at least, one term of the 2019-2020 year, we need additional information to determine your appropriate student status. If you will be a graduate student during any term of the 2019-2020 year, your financial aid cannot be processed until you have applied and been accepted as a graduate student at Ohio University. If you have questions regarding your graduate status, please contact the Office of Graduate Studies at (740) 593-2800.
