Additional information regarding your parents' marital status is needed. If you need guidance on which parent qualifies as the supporting parent, visit <https://studentaid.ed.gov/fafsa/filing-out/parent-info>.

- If your biological or adoptive parents are married to each other OR not married to each other, but living together, answer all questions in Section A. Indicate "Both" in Section A question 7.
- If your biological parents have separated or divorced, you must determine who your supporting parent is for FAFSA purposes and what their current marital status is.
 - The FAFSA should reflect information regarding the parent with whom you lived more in the twelve months prior to completing the FAFSA. This is your supporting parent.
 - If you did not live with either parent more, your supporting parent is the parent who provided you with more financial support in the twelve months prior to completing the FAFSA.
- If your supporting parent was remarried at the time the FAFSA was completed, your parents' marital status is considered "Married" and stepparent information is required on the FAFSA.
