Ohio University Named Fellowships

Information for Graduate, Program and Department Chairs

Five fellowships, funded through the Graduate College, are available annually. Each award provides a fellowship of $15,000 plus a full tuition scholarship for fall and spring semesters.

Claude Kantner came to campus as director of the School of Dramatic Arts and Speech in 1946. He played a major role in the creation of the College of Communication and in planning for the Speech Building, which was renamed in his honor when he retired in 1972.

Anthony Trisolini, a former dean of the College of Fine Arts, was respected throughout the community of Athens and at the University as a teacher, critic, director and performer in the Ohio University Theater and the Ohio Valley Summer Theater and as a member of many University committees concerned with service and scholastic pursuits.

Graduate College: Ohio University is classified by the Carnegie Foundation as a high activity research institution and is regularly among the top 20 Fulbright producing doctoral/research universities.

Eligibility and Nomination Process

1. A nominee must have a minimum cumulative graduate GPA of 3.00 and should represent a truly outstanding student. Additionally, the student needs to be eligible for an Ohio University graduate appointment for the entire year. This would exclude those students who will exceed their term of funding eligibility limit at any time during the year of the award. The nominated student will normally have completed at least one full year of graduate study at Ohio University before the upcoming fall term.
2. A student must be recommended to the graduate chairperson or department/school chairperson by a faculty member. The department/school will select its nominee from the list of recommended students. Each department/school may forward only one nominee.
3. To nominate a student, the department/school must upload the complete nomination packet as a single PDF file (containing the following five documents) no later than 5 P.M. on Friday, February 8, 2019. Please use the following naming convention for the nomination packet: First and last name of student_department (e.g., RufusPutnum_Mathematics.pdf).
 - a) A scanned copy of the completed/signed nomination form.
 - b) A project plan. This must include a description of the background, aims, methodologies (if appropriate), and anticipated outcomes of this project. The student should clearly explain her/his primary goals during the year she/he would receive this funding. The proposal should be written in language understandable to an informed layperson to assist in the review process. The plan should be no more than two pages single spaced, 12-point font. One additional page may be included for references, images or models.
 - c) Abbreviated student CV (two {2} page limit).
 - d) A copy of the student's latest DARS report.
 - e) Three (3) Letters of Support: A nomination letter from the student's primary advisor and two (2) letters of recommendation from other faculty members (each letter should be no more than two (2) pages in length).
4. Once you have the five required documents combined as a single PDF file, please attach the single PDF to an email addressed to namedfellows@ohio.edu.

Review and Announcement of Finalists

The Graduate Council Student Affairs and Fellowships Committee reviews submitted materials. The Committee reserves the option to request additional information or conduct personal interviews. Following its deliberations, the committee will make its recommendations for the recipients of the fellowships to Graduate Council. Fellowship finalists will be posted on the Graduate College website following the March meeting of the Graduate Council.

Fellowship holders may receive additional (limited) financial support from other sources during the year of the fellowship.

Named Fellowship nominations can come from any department/school, but each department/school is limited to one nomination.

Named Fellowships are not tied to any particular discipline.
