

Ohio University – Compensation 2014
Job Family: Fine and Performing Arts | Career Track: Management

Provides the University with all aspects of services related to fine and performing arts productions. Develops, designs, and produces performances, exhibits, and screenings of artistic material. Trains and instructs students on the management of theatres and arts venues. Provides technical instruction and expertise on the design and creation of art within a variety of mediums. LEVEL PROGRESSION ASSUMES INCLUSION OF RESPONSIBILITIES AT LOWER LEVELS.

	Management I	Management II	Management III	Management IV	Management V
Accountabilities	None specified.	None specified.	PEOPLE Oversees the work of employees performing diverse activities associated with the design and production of fine and performing arts venues and workshops. Directs the day-to-day work of employees, sets operational objectives. OPERATIONS Develops strategies for a fine and performing arts unit. Oversees the operations of a performing arts venue or fine arts workshop. Monitors the use of equipment. Consults with functional leaders, architects, and technical experts to determine facility alterations and/or equipment needs. Determines programming for venue and secures materials. Oversees the marketing of programming and events. Collaborates with students, faculty, and community members to provide opportunities for participation in arts and art programming that support curricular priorities. BUDGET Determines necessary purchases. Assists with the development of budgets or may develop budget for unit. Reviews and monitors budgets.	None specified.	None specified.
Requirements			Knowledge and expertise in theories, concepts, and practices of fine or performing arts typically obtained through a Bachelor's degree in fine or performing arts, business administration or related field and 4 to 6 years of experience including significant management experience. An equivalent combination of education, training, and experience is acceptable in lieu of the minimum education requirements. Specific knowledge, certifications, and licensure will apply at the position level.		