Social Security and Medicare

- Social Security is the gateway into Medicare—enrollment into Parts A & B are completed with SSA.

- Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) administers Medicare.

- Refer to www.medicare.gov or 1-800-Medicare for questions about coverage, billing, etc.
Medicare A/B Eligibility

Federal Health Insurance administered by Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS)

- Age 65
- After 24 months of SSDI
- ALS
- Kidney failure
Qualifying for Medicare A/B = Based on FICA Credits

• Most employers collect the Federal Insurance Contributions Act FICA payroll tax = 15.30% of your gross wages, you and your employer each pay 7.65 percent.
  o 6.2% for Social Security (Retirement, Spouse, Survivor, Disability Insurance)
  o 1.45% for Medicare.

• Almost all employers collect the Medicare portion of the FICA (ie-OPERS, STRS, et al) – so nearly all Americans are eligible for Medicare A/B.

• Even if you don’t have enough work to qualify for any Social Security or Medicare, you may be able to get Medicare A/B from a qualifying spouse or ex-spouse (age 62+ or deceased). See www.ssa.gov/planners/retire/yourspouse.html.
Social Security Enrolls You Original Medicare

Part A - Hospital Insurance
• Covers most inpatient hospital expenses, skilled nursing care, hospice care.
• No monthly premium for anyone with 40 Medicare credits.
• Enrollment in Part A is mandatory once you are on benefits and age 65+.
• Part A coverage goes back 6 months retroactively, no earlier than age 65.

Part B - Medical Insurance
• 2024 standard monthly premium $174.70*.
• Covers doctor bills, home health care, preventative services.
• Premium is deducted from benefit.
• Not on benefits? Premium billed quarterly from CMS, or sign up for bank account debit through Medicare Easy Pay at www.medicare.gov.

*Higher income beneficiaries may pay more.
Other Parts of Medicare

- Part A = Hospital Insurance
- Part B = Medical Insurance

You must have Parts A and B to have other Medicare market options which are run by private insurance companies to supplement Medicare A & B costs:

- Part C = Medicare Advantage Plans
- Part D = Prescription Drug Plans
- Supplemental (Medigap) Policies

aka Original Medicare
• OSHIIP answers questions about:
  o Medicare prescription drug plans
  o Original Medicare
  o Medicare Supplemental Insurance
  o Part D Extra Help
  o Medicare Advantage

Medicare A/B Enrollment Periods

Automatic Enrollment
Anyone already receiving a Social Security benefit prior to age 65 is automatically enrolled in Medicare A & B at age 65.

Initial Enrollment Period
Begins 3 months before your 65th birthday and ends 3 months after that birthday. Apply online at www.ssa.gov/medicareonly or by phone.

General Enrollment Period
Open enrollment Jan. 1 – March 31 of each year. A penalty is normally assessed. More at www.ssa.gov/medicare.

Special Enrollment Period
If you are 65 or older and covered under a group health plan based on your – or your spouse’s – current work. Enroll at www.ssa.gov/Medicare-PartB-SEP.
Some People Get Medicare Automatically at 65

• If you’re already getting benefits from Social Security, you’ll be enrolled in both Part A and Part B starting the first day of the month you turn 65.

• If your birthday is on the first day of the month, Part A and B start the first day of the prior month.

• The Welcome to Medicare packet with the Medicare Card arrives about 8 weeks before your 65th birthday, see www.medicare.gov/basics/forms-publications-mailings/mailings/signing-up/get-ready-for-medicare-package.

• Medicare Part B is voluntary, and you must pay a premium for the coverage— you can decline but use caution as you can only delay without a penalty if you have a special enrollment period.
Age 65 Initial Enrollment Period (IEP)

• Not receiving Social Security benefit at age 65: If you are covered under retiree insurance (ie. Tricare), COBRA, ACA, or are uninsured – you must apply for Medicare A/B during your Initial Enrollment Period (IEP).

• How to Apply: Enroll online for A and/or B up to 3 months ahead at www.ssa.gov/medicareonly or call SSA 1-800-772-1213 8am to 7pm for an appointment.

• You can file for just Free Part A at 65, it is secondary to employer insurance. But CAUTION for those who have HSA/HDHP work insurance, Free A will stop HSA contributions. More at IRS pub 969 www.irs.gov.
If you have medical insurance coverage under a group health plan based on your or your spouse’s current employment, you have an SEP for Part B.

The SEP allows you to delay enrolling into Part B without having to wait for a GEP and paying the penalty for late enrollment.

Enroll in Part B without a penalty in the SEP:

- Anytime you want to change from active work coverage to Medicare, OR
- In the 8-month period after your group health plan coverage or the employment ends.
- No need to contact SSA to tell us you want to delay enrollment into Medicare.
If you already enrolled in Part A: Simply submit your completed enrollment forms via upload or fax @ www.ssa.gov/medicare/sign-up or drop forms off at a local office.

If you need to enroll in both Parts A & B: Complete your application for Medicare @ www.ssa.gov/medicare/sign-up, AND submit your enrollment forms to verify your employer health coverage since turning 65.

Download the forms @ www.ssa.gov/forms.

1. CMS L-564 – proof of employer coverage, and
2. CMS -40B – state in remarks what month you want Part B to begin.

Option: Call 1-800-772-1213 to schedule a telephone interview to apply.

The General Enrollment Period

- If you choose NOT to enroll in Part B during your Initial Enrollment Period (IEP), you can enroll during a General Enrollment Period (GEP), but your coverage could be delayed, and you may have to pay a higher monthly premium:
  - The GEP sign up is Jan 1 – Mar 31st each year.
  - Your monthly premium will go up 10% for each 12-month period you were eligible for Part B but didn’t sign up for it.
- Again: you do not have to wait to enroll during the GEP and face penalties if you qualify for a Special Enrollment Period.

The Medicare Card

• After enrollment, the Medicare card is mailed and will have the Medicare Beneficiary Identifier (MBI) on it.

• You can request a replacement online via your mySocialSecurity account at www.ssa.gov/myaccount or a printable version using a myMedicare account www.medicare.gov.

• Note: you can find the MBI in the “Benefit Verification Letter” of the mySocialSecurity account.

• Even if using a Medicare Advantage Plan card, keep your original Medicare card with MBI and enrollment dates in a safe place.
Higher Income= Higher Medicare Premiums

• In 2024, the standard Medicare Part B monthly premium= $174.70/mo.

• If you have higher income, you’ll pay an additional premium amount for Medicare Part B and/or D called income-related monthly adjustment amount (IRMAA).

• To decide IRMAA, we ask the IRS about your modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) from your most recent tax return (usually from two years ago). Your premium is recalculated annually.

• MAGI level for 2024 = 103K individual, 206K couple. Tax filing status is material.

Request to lower an Income-Related Monthly Adjustment Amount (IRMAA)

If you've had a life-changing event that reduced your household income, you can ask to lower the additional amount you'll pay for Medicare Part B and Part D.

Life-changing events include marriage, divorce, the death of a spouse, loss of income, and an employer settlement payment.

Fax or mail your request

Fill out the Medicare Income-Related Monthly Adjustment Amount-Life-changing Event (SSA-44) (PDF) form. Fax or mail your completed form and evidence to a Social Security office.

Find a local office

Amended income tax returns

Call 1-800-772-1213 and tell the representative you want to lower your Medicare Income-Related Monthly Adjustment Amount (IRMAA) if you had an amended income tax return.

https://www.ssa.gov/medicare/lower-irmaa
You may request a new decision once you receive the IRMAA notice.

In order for SSA to make a new determination on IRMAA, you must have BOTH updated tax information AND a life changing event.

Get the SSA-44 @ www.ssa.gov/forms.

Fax or mail the SSA-44 to the local office www.ssa.gov/locator.
If you can’t afford to pay your Medicare Part B premiums and other medical costs, you may be able to get help from your state.

• AKA Medicare Premium Assistance, Medicare Buy-In, QMB/SLMB/Q1.

• Help with Medicare premiums, deductibles and coinsurance.

• To qualify, you must have Medicare Part A and have limited income and resources.
