Understanding Muslims: Islamophobia and Turning Villains into Heroes

with Wajahat Ali

Islamophobia has profound implications on culture, politics, society and even national security. Wajahat Ali, a journalist, writer, lawyer, award-winning playwright, TV host, and consultant for the U.S. State Department will reveal the true nature of this complex issue and how we can overcome it and have a positive impact for marginalized communities.

Thursday, November 17
7:00 – 8:00 PM in Baker Ballroom
Doors open at 6:30 PM for refreshments.

All students, faculty, staff and area residents are invited.