Celebrate International Diversity at Ohio University Zanesville
Most events FREE and open to the community

An array of international cookbooks & travel guides/journals will be on display at the Zanesville Campus Library throughout the week!

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 13
“Where in the World” – World Map just outside Elson Hall 177 showing the representation of the home countries of our faculty and staff

“Travel the World through Photos” – a slideshow on display throughout Elson Hall and in the Zanesville Campus Library featuring photos from around the world where faculty and staff have visited.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 14
International Education Week Kick Off – Welcome by Dean Webster
10 a.m., Zanesville Campus Library light refreshments will be served.

“Know Your World” – Displays featuring Argentina, India, Iran, Jordan, Japan, Romania, & Walking Sticks from Around the World
10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Zanesville Campus Library

“Where in the World” – World Map just outside Elson Hall 177 showing the representation of the home countries of our faculty and staff

“Travel the World through Photos” – a slideshow on display throughout Elson Hall and in Herrold Hall featuring photos from around the world where faculty and staff have visited.

Tuesdays from Around the World
International Food Fair (first come, first serve)
12p to 1p, Elson Hall Atrium

Special thanks to the Zane State College Culinary Arts program under the direction of Marco Ardornetto for the food for today’s event and to Charles Savage, for providing the music

International Film Screenings
Elson Hall Auditorium at the times noted below

Plastic Ocean - A sociological, economic, biological, political, and geological look at our Earth’s oceans. 12:30p, 102 minutes

Ocean’s Deadliest - Steve Irwin’s last movie, he was killed by a ray during the making of this movie. NO, you don’t see the incident. 2p

Coral Reef Adventure - Filmed mainly in the South Pacific, this film offers beautiful views of Coral Reefs, the interdependence and high biodiversity of species. 3:30p

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 15
“Know Your World” – Displays featuring Argentina, India, Iran, Japan, Romania, & Walking Sticks from Around the World
10a to 5p, Zanesville Campus Library

“Where in the World” – World Map just outside Elson Hall 177 showing the representation of the home countries of our faculty and staff

“Travel the World through Photos” – a slideshow on display throughout Elson Hall and in the Zanesville Campus Library featuring photos from around the world where faculty and staff have visited.

Global Voices Presentation
“Hidden Treasures of Sudan” – Dr. Mohamed Tegany will present on the historical aspects of his home country in this informative session
2p-3p, Elson Hall Room 186

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16
“Know Your World” – Displays featuring Argentina, India, Iran, Jordan, Japan, Romania, & Walking Sticks from Around the World
10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Zanesville Campus Library

“Where in the World” – World Map just outside Elson Hall 177 showing the representation of the home countries of our faculty and staff

“Travel the World through Photos” – a slideshow on display throughout Elson Hall and in Herrold Hall featuring photos from around the world where faculty and staff have visited.

Global Voices Presentation
“Perspectives of International Service” – a panel discussion featuring staff and students who served overseas moderated by Regional Coordinating Council member, Stoey Stout. Panelists include Billie Mautz, Kyle Raisbeck, Christina Thompson, and Larry Tumblin. A special appreciation of veterans will be included
3:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the Elson Hall Auditorium.

Global Voices Presentation
“Geography of Genius: How Places Shape Us & Define Us” – a YouTube live stream you can view from anywhere. The speaker Eric Weiner, will be presenting live at the Athens Campus in the Baker Center Ball Room, 7 to 9 p.m. The link to connect is https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=33Myj9DNkZU&feature=youtu.be

Tastes from Around the World event only for students, faculty and staff. All other activities are FREE and open to the community!

Visit ohio.edu/iew to learn more about International Education Week.