Resources available to graduate students across programs and disciplines...we are your center too!

• Incorporating LGBT and queer scholarship in research and curriculum
• Brainstorming ideas for papers, projects, and programs
• Letters of support for research, assistance with study recruitment, and opportunities to share research
• Awareness raising events and interdisciplinary, intersectional initiatives

• Connecting individuals to queer professional and academic organizations
• Library of books and films
• Practicum and Internship possibilities
• Resource for personal and communal engagement of sexual and gender diversities
• Advocacy efforts on and off campus
• Help with navigating the professional worlds as an out LGBTQ+ person
• Happy Hours (Cheers & Queers; Beers & Queers)
• Open to exploring new possibilities of “taking chances, making mistakes, and getting messy!”
