Japanese words are written with three types of characters: hiragana, katakana, and kanji.

Each Hiragana character represents a sound.

Katakana characters are based on hiragana sounds but are used for foreign words.

Kanji characters were adopted from China a long time ago and are different from katakana and hiragana because the characters have specific meanings.

Good Afternoon

ko  n  ni  chi  wa

クラス
ku  ru  su
Class

お母さん
oka  sa
Mother

おんにちは
Trace Cherry Blossom Kanji

FOLLOW THE STEPS AND TRACE THE KANJI FOR CHERRY BLOSSOM.
START YOUR PENCIL AT THE GREEN DOT AND END AT THE RED.

sakura:
Cherry Blossom