

PAN-UNIVERSITY GLOBALIZATION HIGHLIGHTS (FY18)

February 2018

STRATEGIC FRAMEWORK FOR GLOBALIZATION

1 EDUCATION, RESEARCH AND CREATIVITY

1.1 COLLABORATIVE ONLINE INTERNATIONAL LEARNING (COIL)

- a. Dean Webster is leading the COIL initiative, which is gaining momentum and interest among the Athens campus and with institutional partners such as Universiti Teknologi MARA (UiTM), Malaysia and Leipzig University, Germany. During International Education Week, the COIL faculty led the Instructional Innovation and Globalizing the Curriculum workshop.
- b. COIL Faculty Learning Community led by Dean Webster is accepting up to 10 Group 1 and 2 faculty for the 2018-19 academic year. Interested faculty must send him a statement of interest. Participants receive $500 upon completion of the learning community.
- c. Webinar by NAFSA is planned for Friday, February 9th through the Office of Global Affairs.

1.2 OPIE

- a. OPIE received A+ Accreditation in 2017
- b. Consultants completed their review and discussions are now taking place with the Dean regarding the recommendations of the OPIE Strategic Review Group.
- c. Large delegation from Brazil

1.3 CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

- a. Assumed role of Director as of July 1st
- b. CIS annual report <https://www.ohio.edu/global/cis/upload/CIS-Annual-Report2017.pdf>
 - i. The report showcases the 2017 activities and plans for 2018.
 - i. Priority for 2018 is increase # students and quality/diversity of programming and increase visibility of the CIS
- c. CIS 7 year review site visit is scheduled for February 26 to 28th
 - i. External reviewer: Leo Villalon, Dean, International Center and Professor of Political Sciences and African Studies <http://polisci.ufl.edu/leonardo-a-villalon/>
 - ii. CIS 7 year review report is available at:
https://www.ohio.edu/global/cis/upload/CIS-7-Year-Review_Final_1-5-18.pdf
- d. INTENT Platform Planning Grant
 - i. Theresa Moran and Dawn Bikowski research collaborators from Ecuador visited OHIO (January from January 17 to 20th) engaging with university faculty and students and the local community, including taking part in the Community Food Initiative workshop on the Saturday.
 - i. Rommel Montufar, Professor, Biology, Pontifical Catholic University of Ecuador
 - ii. Michael Ayala Ayala, Professor, Environmental Studies, Central University of Ecuador
- e. Professional Development Series was offered in the fall and a program assistant has been hired to develop a mentorship program for career planning for its students.
- f. President and Executive Leadership visit to CIS
 - i. This visit led to further discussions between the Interim Provost and Faculty Senate to advance a new general education course on 'Intercultural Competencies'.

1.4 WORLD LANGUAGES

- a. World Languages Coordinator and Thai Lecturer Pittaya (Fon) Paladroi started January 16th to facilitate increasing the profile and interest of undergrad applicants and OHIO students to enroll in languages at OHIO and to oversee the languages offered by the CIS.
 - i. Discussions with Arts and Sciences, the Provost, the President and faculty are ongoing to ensure there is broad discussion about the value of the world languages offered at OHIO for achieving the vision.

1.5 GLOBALIZING THE CURRICULUM WORKSHOPS AND BOOK PUBLICATION

- a. Dawn Bikowski, Director, ELIP and Talinn Phillips supported by Instructional Innovation and OGAIS carried out a series of workshops in which over 20+ faculty have been involved. A major book on "Teaching with a Global Perspective: Practical Strategies from Course Design to Assessment" emerged from this work and led by Dawn and Talinn in which many faculty and staff contributed case studies. It is in the final stages of publication. This initiative originated from their learning community.

1.6 GLOBAL COMPETENCY COURSE

- a. Preliminary discussions are under way by the CIS program directors, Brandon Kendhammer and Taka Suzuki, to develop the course.

1.7 RESEARCH EXPO ANNOUNCEMENT

- a. University International Council – $150 (1st) and $75 (2nd) or $112.50 (joint 1st) for each session. For students who have conducted international research/creative activity that contributes to global ways of thinking and understanding. Contact: LJ Edmonds

1.8 NEW FACULTY ORIENTATION

- a. Planning is underway for establishing a booth during faculty orientation to introduce incoming faculty to the support services available for globalizing their curriculum, study away, international student and faculty support, the Global Travel Fund and the role of the University International Council. Discussions are also underway to offer a special workshop on globalizing the curriculum for new faculty to be led by Talinn Phillips and Dawn Bikowski.

1.9 CAREER DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVE OF THE STATE OF OHIO

- a. OHIO is responding to an opportunity to offer directed career programming for students raise with a proposed fee increase of $6 per credit hour. OGAIS has been involved with interest for international students and the CIS to be included in the program and to align with preparing students for global careers.

2 MOBILITY OF KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE

2.1 OFFICE OF GLOBAL OPPORTUNITY

- a. Enrollments and travel registrations for winter break, spring break and spring semester are nearly complete. The enrollment as of December 2017 was 335. Number is down from this time last year due largely to a different slate of programs running.
- b. Expanded walk-in advising hours introduced this year: over 580 advising sessions in the fall.
- c. Programs to Cuba are not running this year due to logistical issues. Given new travel warning, OHIO's Cuba programs will need to complete risk review before running in the future.
- d. New SAC proposal deadlines posted on OGO website.

3 DIVERSITY OF CAMPUS LIFE

3.1 INTERNATIONAL STUDENT AND FACULTY SERVICES

- a. Current international enrollment as of Fall 2017: 1,477 - approximately 60% grad 40% undergrad
 - a. Incoming Spring cohort: 30
 - b. Countries represented on campus: 102 (including the U.S.)
- b. ISFS has implemented walk-in advising from 1:30 until 4pm on M,T,W, and F – this has helped with backlog of students waiting to see an adviser – we have seen approximately 504 students since implementation started in summer.
- c. Focus going forward is on relationship building with departments and students
- d. Executive Orders and DACA were in the news in the fall with additional countries added to the Orders and continued proposed restrictions for DACA students. The University has initiated discussions about summer plans for international students. Discussions regarding legal support through increasing student's fees for services has stalled over uncertainty of magnitude of demand and ability to service this need adequately.
- e. A dinner was organized for Fulbright Scholars which was an important opportunity for all to meet and to gain an insight into their OHIO experience.

3.2 INTERNATIONAL ENROLLMENT STRATEGY

- a. Grok, the lead company assisting Enrollment Management has moved forward to implement the strategy, including a visit by Vicki Seefeldt-West to China and a Grok delegation to OHIO in October. The recruitment team is active in China now.

3.3 WOMEN'S CENTER: WORLD HIJAB DAY AND SUPPORT FOR INTERNATIONAL EVENTS

- a. The OGAI supported the Women's Center with a graduate assistant to assist with the Center generally but more specifically to ensure international activities could be carried out this year. Resource limitations were placing programming at risk. As a result a number of activities are ongoing including the international women's coffee hour, international women's faculty events, and sponsorship for the World Hijab Day (February 1st) and International Women's day (March 8th).

3.4 INTERNATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE

- a. Graduate Student Senate with the support of a valuable study conducted by Graduate Employee Organization approved Resolution 1718-17 on November 7, 2017: Asking Ohio University to no longer require International Students to Purchase the Student Health Insurance Policy.
- b. The Office of Student Affairs, which oversees the insurance policy, is currently moving forward to change the international student health insurance program by seeking third party reviewers to assist with the oversight of insurance. It is expected this will be in place in FY2020 but the goal is for FY2019.

4 GLOBAL RELATIONS AND PROFILE

4.1 MEETINGS WITH THE PRESIDENT AND EVPP

- a. January 25th: Discussion of meetings with international alumni, partners and visits to regions where there is active faculty and student engagement. Attending also were VP Research and Ass Director, Office of Global Affairs
- b. February 6th: Introduction to and communication with UIC and alignment of Global Strategy with the President's Strategic Priorities, and opportunities for collaboration
- c. March 1st: Global Strategy discussion with the EVPP

4.2 MAINSTREAMING GLOBALIZATION ACROSS UNIVERSITY

- a. Notable firsts this year was the inclusion of OGAIS in Faculty Orientation, the Global Vision Student Senate Bill and Bill of Rights; the CLDC Career Day identifying companies welcoming international graduates/OPT; the VP OGAIS being included in the search for the new Vice President, Advancement, and reference being made to the priority for support for globalization in the advertisement; and, in particular, the President Investiture with strong overarching international/global theme and priority specific to global engagement, interdisciplinary programming, diversity and inclusion and investing in faculty.
