Subject: Academic Standing (Probation) Status Finalized for Summer 2013-14

Dear Student,

Your academic standing (probation) as of summer semester has been finalized. Please go to the My OHIO Student Center to review your academic standing.

To find your grades and academic standing (probation):

After signing in to the My OHIO Student Center:

- click on "other academic..." drop-down box
- choose "Grades"
- click the double arrow to the right of the drop-down box
- select the appropriate session
- click Continue

Official Grades will be listed followed by the Term Statistics followed by Academic Standing.

At the close of the semester, the academic record of each enrolled undergraduate student (regardless of student enrollment status) will be reviewed to verify the accumulative GPA. At the time of the review, if you do not have the required 2.0 minimum accumulative GPA, you will be placed on academic probation. To be removed from probation, your accumulative GPA must reach at least a 2.0.

Students with fewer than 90 semester credit hours earned: If you have fewer than 90 semester credit hours earned and are not removed from probation, you will be continued on probation or you will be academically dismissed. To be continued on probation, you must have either: a semester GPA at least 2.0 or an accumulative GPA equal to or greater than the minimum GPA defined by your hours earned.

Total Hours Earned	Minimum Accumulative GPA to be continued on probation
0.00-29.99	1.6
30.00-59.99	1.8
60.00-89.99	1.9

If you are on probation and fail both of the criteria described above, you will be academically dismissed.

Students with 90 or more semester credit hours earned: If you are on probation in a given semester and you have 90 or more semester credit hours earned at the end of that semester, you must achieve a 2.0 accumulative GPA to avoid academic dismissal.

If you have questions regarding your academic standing (probation) please contact your college student services office.
