<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Event</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 9:30AM-10:00AM | Registration and Light Snacks
Baker Theater Lounge                        |
| 10:00AM      | Welcome and Conference Orientation
Baker Theater                                      |
| 10:30AM-11:30AM | AAUW Start Smart Salary Negotiation*
Baker 237
This session requires two hours; you will need to attend the second part to complete the training.
Graduate School Mapping with Beyoncé
Baker 239
Maintaining Motivation: How to Get It Done
Baker 235
Panel: Going into Male Dominated Careers
Baker 230
International Students: Immigration after Education/Applying for Jobs
Baker 233 |
| 11:35AM-12:35PM | AAUW Start Smart Salary Negotiation Part 2
Baker 237
Graduate Student Panel: What is it really like?
Baker 239
Navigating the Unwritten Rules within Graduate School and How They Apply to Life
Baker 235
Hurdles Women Still Face in the Race, and How to Jump Them
Baker 230
Framing Research with a Gendered Lens
Women’s Center
(Baker 403)
Returning to Graduate School after a time out
Baker 233 |
| 12:35PM-1:30PM | A Boxed Lunch will be provided. We encourage you to network during this time. |
| 1:45PM-2:45PM | First Keynote: Gloria Burgess
Baker Theater (2nd floor in Baker Center) |
| 3:00PM-4:00PM | Graduate College Presentation
Baker 237
Making the Most of Mentors and Responding to Difficult Advisors
Baker 239
Facing Microaggressions within the Classroom
Baker 235
Graduate school with a family
Baker 230
Networking: A How To
Baker 233 |
| 4:00PM-5:00PM | Second Keynote: Strategies to Respond to Sexual Harassment in the Classroom: a Forum Theater Workshop
Baker Theater (2nd floor in Baker Center) |
| 5:00PM-6:00PM | Networking (Baker 2nd floor)                         |
10:30AM-11:30AM

AAUW Start Smart Salary Negotiation in Baker 237.
This workshop is presented by Assistant Dean of the Career & Student Success Center in the College of Business, Jennifer Murphy. The workshop is designed to assist participants in first-time salary negotiation situations.

Graduate School Mapping with Beyoncé in Baker 239.
Delivered by Erin Morgenstern from the Career and Leadership Development Center, this workshop uses the life of Beyoncé to help students realize what they need to do to prepare for graduate school applications, and what they should be looking for within a graduate program so that their needs are met.

Maintaining Motivation: How to Get it Done in Baker 235.
Delivered by Monica Hatfield Price, PhD, co-author of Interrupting Class Inequality in Higher Education: Leadership for an Equitable Future, this presentation is geared towards those amid their graduate program and having difficulty completing their proposal, a chapter, or those final edits.

Panel: Going into Male Dominated Careers in Baker 230.
Panelists include Toni Marinucci, Web Services Manager with Information Technology, Sarah Wyatt, Professor & Director of Cellular & Molecular Biology, and Destiny Price, Assistant Director of the Career & Student Success Center in the College of Business.

11:35AM-12:35PM

Graduate Student Panel: What is it really like? in Baker 239.
This panel is organized by Graduate Student Senate and is geared towards those who are considering graduate school, or who are wondering if others are having some of the same experiences as they are.

Navigating the Unwritten Rules within Graduate School and How They Apply to Life in Baker 235.
Becky Bushey-Miller, Director of Communications and Professional Development within the Graduate College, will provide this session to help individuals new to graduate school life understand the unwritten expectations that may exist within their departments.

Hurdles Women Still Face in the Race, and How to Jump Them in Baker 230.
Julie Suhr, Professor and Director of Clinical Training within Psychology, will present on current data that demonstrates barriers that women are still faced with, and how to counteract them.
Framing Research with a Gendered Lens in Baker 403.
Presented by Sherri Saines, subject librarian Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies at Alden Library, this presentation will help you connect with resources offered at the library, and to understand how Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies, as an interdisciplinary field, can help you in your research in other disciplines as well.

Returning to Graduate School after a Time Out in Baker 233.
Dianne Bouvier, Director & ADA/504 Coordinator, Equal Opportunity & Accessibility, University Equity and Civil Rights Compliance, will present on how to proactively prepare yourself to return to graduate school, and resources available to address challenges that you may face.

1:45PM-2:45PM: First Keynote in Baker Theater (2nd Floor)
Dr. Gloria J. Burgess loves nothing more than inspiring others to create a bridge from what was... and what is... to what can be... and she’s dedicated her entire life to doing just that. An experienced business woman and top inspirational speaker in the US and internationally, she shares her story of overcoming extreme poverty, racism, and sexism, showing us that your life circumstances do not have to predict your destiny. Gloria engages individuals and organizations in finding the vital core of their creative genius. And she weaves together her own personal legacy using the threads of authenticity, creativity, soulfulness, and inclusive leadership. A trusted adviser to Fortune 500 companies, her clients include Starbucks, Microsoft, Citigroup, Boeing, AT&T, the South African Embassy, and President’s Office of Paraguay.

3:00PM-4:00PM
Graduate College Presentation in Baker 237.
This presentation will provide information about the Graduate College at Ohio University and what you can do to prepare to apply.

Making the Most of Mentors and Responding to Difficult Advisors in Baker 239.
Panelists include Robin Muhammad, Chair and Associate Professor of African American Studies, Jenny Hall-Jones, Dean of Students, and Ashwini Ganeshan, Assistant Professor of Spanish in the Department of Modern Languages.

Facing Microaggressions within the Classroom in Baker 235.
Winsome Chunnu-Brayda, Strategic Director for Diversity and Inclusion and Multicultural Programs and Initiatives, will define microaggressions, review common ones that occur within the classroom, and help to develop strategies to challenge microaggressions.

Graduate School with a Family in Baker 230.
This panel is organized by Graduate Student Senate and will help build connections between those who are in graduate school and also have children. There will be a discussion of resources and strategies for work/life balance shared.
Networking in Baker 233.
The Career Leadership and Development Center will have you ever heard the saying, "It's not what you know, it's who you know?" Well, that is often true, but the statement should be edited to say, "It's not what you know; it's who you know, and what they know about you!" This workshop will allow participants to reflect on their personal leadership brand and discuss how to leverage their individual leadership brands for professional networking. Participants will develop an elevator pitch and discuss how to utilize LinkedIn and informational interviews for networking success.

4:00PM-5:00PM: Second Keynote in Baker Theater (2nd Floor)

Strategies to Respond to Sexual Harassment in the Classroom: a Forum Theater Workshop
Have you experienced sexual harassment in the classroom from undergrad students, or instructors you TA for? What is the most effective way to respond? This Forum Theater-style workshop will be led by students from the Theater Division’s Creative Solutions Alliance. Engage with actors in a safe environment to try out ideas and improvise responses to sexual harassment in the classroom.

5:00PM-6:00PM: Networking and cookies in Baker (2nd Floor)

A special thank you to our co-sponsors: the Women’s Center, the Graduate College, Graduate Student Senate, the Voinovich School of Leadership and Public Affairs, the AAUW-student affiliate, the Alumni Association, and the LGBT Center.