I understand that I am working with ____________________ [artist name], who is submitting art to the International Women's Art Installation and that their project is not being overseen or supervised by the Women's Center.

I understand that films, photographs, or reproductions have been made which I appear. I agree to let the Women's Center, its subsidiaries, and its agents publish or make other public use of these films, photographs, and other reproductions.

I also agree to give Women's Center, its subsidiaries, and its agents all responsibility and authority for inspecting, approving and selecting these pictures.

While University Women's Center agrees not to make any deliberate distortion or other alteration of these pictures, I agree not to hold it liable for any distortion or alteration that may result.
