Waves of Hope and Peace

White caps on the sea
Seem to beckon me,
"Come and join with us!"
Justice makes her plea
With hope eternally
That evil tries to crush.
The White of Purity
Is threatened by the sea
Of evil human hearts.
The only hope we know
Rides beyond this flow
In waves of a new start.
So come, take my hand
Let Peace on sea and land
Be our guiding light.
I’ll stand with you, my friend
Until the storm clouds end
Let Peace be our delight.
