The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) is a Federal Law that protects the privacy of student education records. This law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. Generally, schools must have written permission from the eligible student in order to release any information from a student's education record.

By signing below, I hereby authorize Ohio University's Office of Community Standards & Student Responsibility (CSSR) to discuss the following education records with the below listed individuals:

- Contents of Individual Case from incident(s) occurring on _____
- Entire Disciplinary File
