Campus Involvement Center

Position: Power Based Personal Violence Harm Reduction

Remuneration: $13,500.00 (plus tuition waiver)

Contact Person: Terry Koons, Associate Director, Campus Involvement for Health Promotion

Position Description:
The Graduate Assistant for Power Based Personal Violence harm reduction has responsibility for assisting with all power based personal violence programs including A Mile Together, bystander intervention workshops, and consent education. The Graduate Assistant will supervise the Better Bystander’s peer health educators and coordinate their programming efforts. The Graduate Assistant will collaborate with key stakeholders and various campus partners in addressing power based personal violence.

➢ Advise the Better Bystanders peer health educators organization including the daily operations, weekly meetings, conference proposals and budgeting requests;
➢ Coordinate power based personal violence harm reduction peer-to-peer programs for various audiences including First-Year Students, Sorority & Fraternity Life and Athletes;
➢ Assist peer health educators with the development of power based personal violence harm reduction programs with emphasis on high-risk time periods and events;
➢ Deliver power based personal violence workshops to various audiences;
➢ Assist with collaborative and inclusive programming with campus partners including the Survivor Advocacy Program, The Women’s Center, Title IX, LGBT Center, Multicultural Center, etc. to expand educational programming;
➢ Coordinate and lead monthly A Mile Together to End Power Based Personal Violence planning meetings;
➢ Assist with development of educational marketing campaigns including print and social media messaging;
➢ Audit the peer health education course, if possible;
➢ Maintain regular office hours;
➢ Attend bi-weekly Campus Involvement Center staff meetings;
➢ Attend weekly supervision meeting and Health Promotion staff meetings;
➢ Fulfill other assigned duties;
➢ Requires 20 hours per week while school is in session. Some evening and weekend work required. Must be available to participate in staff orientation and training during the week prior to the opening of fall semester. Must be available to assist in Opening weekend and Homecoming activities.
➢ Participation in Campus Involvement Center, Division, University and professional activities is encouraged.
➢ We seek candidates committed to working with diverse populations.

How to apply: Please fill out the online application at http://www.ohiouniversityjobs.com/postings/29128

To apply, you will need your resume, cover letter, a list of professional references, and your autobiographical sketch/personal statement. You may apply for up to four graduate assistantships at Ohio University. For general questions on the GA application process, please contact: Elizabeth Stermer, Graduate Assistant for the Office of the Dean of Students at es933317@ohio.edu or (740) 593-1800.