Undergraduate Orientation Programs

Position: Graduate Assistant, Undergraduate Orientation Programs (UOP)
Remuneration: Minimum $12,000 (plus tuition waiver)
Contact Person: Cimmeron O’Connor, Director

Position Description:

The Office of Undergraduate Orientation Programs prepares students and families for a successful transition to Ohio University. Undergraduate Orientation Programs assist students in becoming active in their OHIO community in order to and enhance the persistence of and graduation success of OHIO’s students. This position is an excellent fit for graduate students who are passionate about actively engaging in the academic and social success of incoming undergraduate students. The Orientation Graduate Assistant must be culturally competent and able to work with first generation, low income, underrepresented, international, transfers, re-entry, and students in crisis or scholastic difficulty. This individual will gain a wide variety of experiences that will prepare him/her to enter professional advising and orientation positions in student and academic affairs.

OHIO’s orientation graduate assistant collaborates to plan, implement and assess multiple orientation programs for incoming first-year and transfer students, relocating students and their families:

- Develop an understanding of orientation programs and how it contributes to student retention
- Assist with the daily management of all orientation programs
- Coordinate Relocate Day programming and collaborate with our regional campus partners
- Assist with hiring, training and supervision of undergraduate Orientation Leaders (OLs)
- Become knowledgeable of all university wide academic requirements and able to navigate university systems
- Assist with academic advising for first-year and transfer students
- Assist with the writing of annual reports, goals, and learning outcomes. Assist with the development and implementation of assessment plans and reports
- Participating in UOP weekly staff meetings, University College staff meetings, and University Academic Advising Council meetings
- Participate in professional development that includes attending our regional orientation conferences
- Represent Undergraduate Orientation Programs at academic and admissions events, respond to emails and voicemails, and perform other duties as assigned
