Campus Involvement Center

Position: Power Based Personal Violence Harm Reduction
Remuneration: $13,500.00 (plus tuition waiver)
Contact Person: Terry Koons, Associate Director, Campus Involvement for Health Promotion

Position Description:

The Graduate Assistant for Power Based Personal Violence harm reduction has responsibility for assisting with sexual assault and relationship violence programs including, Sexual Assault Awareness Month, A Mile Together and bystander intervention programs. The Graduate Assistant will supervise the Better Bystander’s peer health educators and their programs. The Graduate Assistant will collaborate with the Sexual Assault Advocates, Student Senate and the Women’s Center in addressing power based personal violence.

- Coordinate sexual assault related harm-reduction peer to peer programs for First-Year Students, Greeks and Athletes;
- Advise the Better By-Stander’s peer educator program operation, meetings, conference proposals and SAC/U-Fund requests;
- Assist with development of a Power Based Personal Violence educational social media campaigns;
- Assist peer educators with the development of sexual assault awareness month, sexual assault harm-reduction, health relationship and stalking programs;
- Expand educational programs that address Power Based Personal Violence for upper-class/off-campus students;
- Coordinate monthly A Mile Together to End Power Based Personal Violence planning meetings;
- Assist with collaborative programming that includes Sexual Assault Advocates, The Women’s Center, Student Senate and Title IX office to expand educational programming;
- Maintain regular office hours;
- Attend bi-weekly Campus Involvement Center staff meetings;
- Attend weekly supervision meeting and Health Promotion staff meetings;
- Fulfill other assigned duties;
- Requires 20 hours per week while school is in session. Some evening and weekend work required. Must be available to participate in staff orientation and training during the week prior to the opening of fall quarter. Must be available to assist in Opening weekend activities, commencement and Halloween.
- Participation in Campus Involvement Center, Division, University and professional activities is encouraged.
- We seek candidates committed to working with diverse populations.

This position is currently filled for the 2018-19 academic year

To apply, you will need your resume, cover letter, a list of professional references, and your autobiographical sketch/personal statement. You may apply for up to four graduate assistantships at Ohio University. For general questions on the GA application process, please contact: Elizabeth Stermer, Graduate Assistant for the Office of the Dean of Students at es933317@ohio.edu or (740) 593-1800.