Ohio University’s Voinovich School actively engages the University’s social and educational missions to help make the region and state a better place while providing students with unique opportunities to apply classroom knowledge to real-world projects.

VOINOVICH SCHOOL UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH SCHOLARS

The Voinovich School of Leadership and Public Affairs is offering Undergraduate Research Scholar funded positions for the 2016-2017 academic year. Students selected for these positions will work 10 hours per week, 14 weeks per semester for two semesters at the rate of $11 per hour. Scholars will be assigned to work with Voinovich School faculty and professional staff. Opportunities include innovative research and work related to:

Energy & the Environment
* Sustainability
* Watershed Management
* Ecology
* GIS
* Field and Lab Research Opportunities

Entrepreneurship & Regional Development
* Small Business Planning
* Economic Development
* Product Design and Marketing

Policy Innovation & Strategic Leadership
* Community Health
* Public Policy
* Public Relations & Communication
* Research and Evaluation

It’s been really rewarding. I’m learning research skills and how to turn that into something that can actually be used.
